

ELENA BONTA

UNDERSTANDING
LANGUAGE AUTOBIOGRAPHIES

- Implications for Lifelong Learning -

ALMA MATER
BACAU - 2014

CONTENTS

Instead of introduction. Language autobiography as interaction, in interaction and through interaction	7
I. Lifelong Learning	13
I.1. Global policy consensus on lifelong learning	15
I.2. Adult education in the context of Lifelong Learning	17
I.3. Language learning	18
I.3.1. First language learning	18
I.3.2. Second language acquisition	20
II. Language Autobiography	25
II.1. Autobiography. Language autobiography	27
II.2. Language autobiography as a special type of interaction	30
III. Theoretical framework for the study of language autobiography	35
IV. Understanding terminology	81
V. Eliciting and working on language autobiographies	127
VI. Language autobiographies. Implications for learning and teaching	147
VII. Framework for reflection on language autobiography	153
VIII. Overview upon reflections in language autobiographies	169
Bibliography	201
1. Bibliography on theoretical framework	203
2. Bibliography on approaches to language autobiography	220
3. Bibliography on learning and teaching foreign languages	256